About University

Central University of Haryana (CUH) is one of the fifteen new Central Universities established by Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India (GoI) in XI Five Year Plan (2007-2012) under the Central University Act-2009 of the Parliament.

The University has been listed among the top 150-200 Universities in NIRF ranking. The University is fully funded by the University Grants Commission (UGC). Permanent Campus of the University is situated in 484 acres of land at Jant-Pali Villages, Mahendergarh district of Haryana from where CUH is running its academic operations. Presently the University offers 83 academic programmes (UG/PG/Research).

About Department

The Department of Biotechnology was established in 2015 and functions under the umbrella of School of Interdisciplinary and Applied Sciences (SIAS). The department has faculty members from different backgrounds of biotechnology offering a wide research, training, and teaching experience. Faculty members are engaged in several research projects funded by different Government of India funding organizations like UGC, DST, DBT, MHRD, etc. The department is aimed at training students in the field of biotechnology and encouraging interdisciplinary activities among the faculties. The department also plans to get involved in social outreach activities and guide industries to utilize sustainable technologies. The Department of Biotechnology believes in the integration between subjects and allied disciplines such as chemical engineering, chemistry, medicine, energy and solid waste management. The focus of the department is also to develop technologies that seek solutions to real life problems.

About Workshop

The workshop will focus on cutting-edge next-generation sequencing tools, as well as the latest genomics resources and analytical techniques for exploring genomic data. This workshop is part of the Scientific Social Responsibility initiative, which is funded by the Science and Engineering Research Board (SERB) to promote public engagement and advance scientific knowledge. The workshop is being organised for teacher from colleges nearby Central University of Haryana
