The future of a nation is bright only when it cherishes each and every moment of its past experiences and heritage with pride. India has a rich reservoir of historical consciousness and cultural heritage to be proud of. To witness this historical, cultural and national consciousness, Central University of Haryana is celebrating Azadi KA Amrit Mahotsav with various events. The Amrit Mahotsav of Independence is the nectar of new ideas and new resolutions.

21st Century India is aspiring self-sufficiency. In the Corona period, it is also proved directly to the whole world that self-sufficient India is setting a healthy example by creating vaccine and bringing the humanity out of the crisis of epidemic. By making the Corona vaccine available, India made great efforts to protect the health not only of its own citizens but also of people of other countries. India's achievement of today are not just own but they are going to be new light of hope to the entire humanity. In this direction Central University of Haryana has organized following events.
