ANNEXURE-I

TIE - BREAKING POLICY

In case of a tie in CUET score, the following procedure will be followed in order to decide the merit:

1. The candidate, who scored higher marks in the qualifying degree, will be first offered the seat.
2. If there is a further tie in the score with regard to the above mentioned Point-1 (the case of same score in the qualifying degree), the seat will be offered to the candidate, who has scored higher marks in the concerned subject as per the eligibility of the programme.
3. If there is a further tie with regard to both of the above mentioned cases (Point 1 & 2), the seat will be offered to the candidate, who has scored higher marks in the preceding (relevant) degrees.
4. If the tie still continues, the candidate who is older in age will be given preference.
5. In case, the tie continues further with regard to all of the above mentioned cases (Point 1, 2, 3 & 4), the decision of the competent authority will be final and binding.
