About Central University of Haryana (CUH)

Central University of Haryana (CUH), established under the Central University Act of 2009 during the XI Five Year Plan (2007-2012), is one of fifteen new Central Universities created by the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India. Accredited with an 'A' grade in the second cycle of NAAC assessment in August 2023, CUH ranks among the top 150-200 universities in the National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF). Fully funded by the University Grants Commission (UGC), the university operates from its permanent 484-acre campus located in Jant-Pali villages, Mahendergarh district, Haryana, offering 83 academic programs across undergraduate, postgraduate, and research levels.

About National Institute of Social Defence (NISD)

The National Institute of Social Defence (NISD), under the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment, Government of India, is a key training and research institute focused on social defence. It develops human resources in areas like drug abuse prevention, senior citizen welfare, transgender rights, and beggary prevention. Serving as a Central Advisory Body, NISD coordinates with government and non government bodies at various levels. Its work includes research, training, consultancy, and publications, aimed at shaping policies and programs to protect and uplift marginalized and vulnerable populations.

Theme

Fostering Inclusion & Legal Awareness: Understanding the Rights of Transgender Persons

The program emphasizes legal awareness and inclusion, fostering a gender-sensitive academic environment. It highlights transgender rights, reducing discrimination, and promoting respect through education, legal literacy, and institutional support for equality.

Objectives

- Enhance Legal Awareness: Educate participants on the rights and protections under the Transgender Persons (Protection of Rights) Act, 2019, and Rules, 2020.
- Promote Inclusivity: Encourage a gender-sensitive and non-discriminatory academic environment.
- Address Challenges: Discuss social, educational, and legal barriers faced by transgender individuals.
- Strengthen Institutional Support: Equip faculty and students with knowledge to advocate for transgender rights and inclusion.
