THEME

Social Defence: Strengthening Policy and Practice to Protect Vulnerable Populations

This program will explore critical social defence issues impacting marginalized groups such as children, the elderly, transgender individuals, people affected by substance abuse, and those engaged in the act of begging. Participants will delve into the role of policies and programs in safeguarding these groups, with an emphasis on practical approaches to social work. The program will be facilitated by national-level experts in the field.

OBJECTIVES

- Enhance understanding of social defence and its importance.
- Analyze the role of law, social work, and policy in protecting vulnerable populations.
- Encourage collaboration between educators, practitioners, and policymakers.
- Develop strategies to address community-level social defence challenges.
- Showcase best practices and case studies for effective program implementation.

ELIGIBLE PARTICIPANTS

Faculty members and Research Scholars of Universities/Colleges located in and around Mahendragarh District of Haryana. (Limited to 30 seats on first register – first serve basis). Preference will be given to the applicants belonging to the field of Social Work/Social Sciences.

WHY PARTICIPATE?

- Participants in the Training of Trainers (ToT) program will be awarded certification as Master Trainers.
- Certification is recognized by the National Institute of Social Defence, Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment, Government of India, and Central University of Haryana.
- The program offers an opportunity to deepen understanding of contemporary social issues.
- The participants will also be provided by training material at free of cost.

About Central University of Haryana (CUH) :

Central University of Haryana (CUH), established under the Central University Act of 2009 during the XI Five Year Plan (2007-2012), is one of fifteen new Central Universities created by the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India. Accredited with an 'A' grade in the second cycle of NAAC assessment in August 2023, CUH ranks among the top 150-200 universities in the National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF). Fully funded by the University Grants Commission (UGC), the university operates from its permanent 484-acre campus located in Jant-Pali villages, Mahendergarh district, Haryana, offering 83 academic programs across undergraduate, postgraduate, and research levels.

About National Institute of Social Defence (NISD) :

The National Institute of Social Defence (NISD), under the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment, Government of India, is a key training and research institute focused on social defence. It develops human resources in areas like drug abuse prevention, senior citizen welfare, transgender rights, and beggary prevention. Serving as a Central Advisory Body, NISD coordinates with government and non-government bodies at various levels. Its work includes research, training, consultancy, and publications, aimed at shaping policies and programs to protect and uplift marginalized and vulnerable populations.
